A ROUND OF TALK.

How to Run a Newspaper.

When a man goes astray
Keep it out.
When the critic roasts a play,
Keep it out.
When two men in anger clash,
Keep it out.
When a merchant goes to smash, When the cashier steals the cash,
Keep it out.
When they quarrel in the church,
Keep it out.
When a teacher wields the birch,
Keep it out.
When nine women fail to see Whisper among them or tea—Print it? Goodness gracious me!
"Keep it out!"
When two statesmen make a deal
Keep it out.
When another tries to steal
Keep it out.
Stories thin and stories tall; Good and bad, big and small—Anything that's news at all—
"Keep it out!"

MORAL WAVE.

The Danville papers are telling of a great moral wave which is sweeping over the little capital city of our neighboring county of Boyle. If one should believe all of the reports which have been sent out from Danville this reform wave would seem to be an unnecessary effort. Local opinion has been in force in Danville for years and that town has been held up before the eye of other sin-cursed towns as a great example of virtue—a model town which others might do well to emulate. It seems however the true condition of affairs are coming to light since the moral reform wave has struck the town. A Danville paper gives an account of a meeting of representatives citizens who have determined to put the lid of the town. The keepers of several houses of ill repute have been notified to leave town and the papers say: "Several places where it is understood that liquor is sold, or in other words, 'blind tigers,' were notified that they must quit their unlawful business or they would be severely handled. The citizens express themselves as determined to see that all blind tigers be broken up. And they may draw a paper asking the druggists to sign it stating that they will not sell liquor of any kind, even on prescription."

MUST PAY.—At a meeting of the Board of Council last Friday night it was developed that all of the holders of special licenses had not renewed for this year and the city clerk was instructed to give delinquents until Monday, May 20th in which time to make good and after that time to issue tax warrants against all who had failed to pay up at that time. The town will need every dollar that can be collected on these special licenses as well as the regular taxes in order to meet current expenses and then it is feared that there will be a shortage. The proposition of a bond issue for the town was brought up at the meeting and it was decided to call a mass meeting of the citizens of the town at an early date for the purpose of getting an expression from the people and the taxpayers of the town as to the advisability of calling an election to take a vote on the bond question. It is argued that the only way for the town to secure a good sewerage system and new streets will be by bond issue, but there are many taxpayers who shy at the town assuming a debt which will increase the burden of the taxpayers. One matter of special interest to the residents of the northern end of the town was taken up by the board by the way, and that was the building of the much talked of sidewalk on Walnut Street. The city attorney was instructed to attend take steps towards enforcing the ordinance passed some time ago providing for the construction of the walks at the expense of the property owners.

NUMBERED.—The Rural Free Delivery mail boxes out of Springfield have all been numbered according to instructions from the Department. Mail addressed to box owners should hereafter contain the number of the box as well as the number of the route. Postmaster Waters who went over the routes to do the numbering last week says that he had to use a good deal of strategy in handling the unlucky number 13 in his rounds and in one case in particular a well known citizen and box owner announced that as much as he valued the rural mail service he would take his box down and do without it rather than to have the number 13 put on it. Fortunately it was discovered that our superstitious friends, escaped by a narrow margin and the unlucky number fell to a neighbor who was conveniently absent from the scene and consequently could not object until afterwards and then it was too late.

Wonderful Eczeema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczeema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Elice-Bittner's Eczeema Cure. We bought a bottle and used it. We noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured. Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at Haydon & Robertson's Drugstore, 50c.

$4,000 Damages.

The suit of Mrs. Raine, of Atlanta, formerly Miss Minnie Bohon, of Harrodsburg, against the Southern Railway Company, Cincinnati Southern and Pullman Car Company, for $15,000 damages, ended Tuesday. The jury giving her $4,000. Mrs. Raine bought a ticket and engaged a berth in Harrodsburg for Atlanta, and was told that she would get a sleeper at Danville. When she boarded the train there she was informed that the Atlanta sleeper had gone on the first section. She left the train at Junction City, walked through the snow to the hotel and remained all night there in a room and came back to Harrodsburg the next day. She contracted a severe illness from having to stay at Junction City all night. Hon. Robert Harding, J. F. Vansardall and E. M. Hardin represented the plaintiff. Danville News.

Chief Thompson to be Tried.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held Tuesday evening, the mayor and all of the members being present. A sensational incident of the meeting was the filing of a charge of furnishing liquor to a minor against Chief of Police J. A. Thompson. The charges were preferred by Councilman John T. Carter. It is alleged that the officer gave liquor to Douglas Carter, a son of the councilman, and a minor. Upon motion of J. Carter, seconded by Councilman John Kelly the chief of police was called to appear before a special session of the council next Tuesday evening to show cause why he should not be suspended or discharged from service. It is believed that some very sensational testimony will be heard at the trial.—Enterprise.

Had Liquor in Possession.

J. K. Hendrickson and C. L. Campbell, of Casey county, were taken in charge Tuesday afternoon by Chief of Police Thompson who, at the time, thought the young men had violated the local option laws. They came to Lebanon Tuesday morning and later drove to Springfield. Upon returning here the officers found that they had several gallons of liquor in their buggy and took them into custody. Later upon investigation the young men were dismissed, the city attorney and city judge stating that they thought no violation of the law had been committed in merely passing through town with the liquor, though each said that the law governing the Lebanon Exterpriso.

Found in Pond.

Yesterday morning the body of Mr. Rufus Bonta was discovered in a pond on the farm where he lived with his father, Mr. Abe Bonta, about two miles out from town on the Danville pike. The young man left home just after dinner Wednesday. When he did not return at night the family became alarmed and instituted search but without result until yesterday morning, when George McClanahan, a colored man who works on the farm, and Mr. Trisler, a neighbor, discovered the top of Mr. Bonta's head sticking out of the water. As he was in the habit of wandering about his very feeble condition, it is supposed that he slipped over the embankment into the water and the water was less than two feet deep where he was drowned.

Coroner Gibbs held and inquest and returned a verdict in accordance with the facts stated. Mr. Bonta was 57 years of age and unmarried. He is survived by his father, mother, three brothers and two sisters. He had been in very poor health for several years and could find no relief from physicians or sanitariums—Harrodsburg Democrat.

The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. S. H. Bishop, of this place and paid a visit to her and other relatives in the county last summer.

Support For County Fairs.

If Governor Denson affixes his signature to the bill appropriating a bonus of 40 per cent of the cash prizes offered by each of the county fair associations of this State it may be reasonably expected that county fairs throughout Illinois will receive a material boost.

As already stated in these columns this bill was modeled after the Wisconsin law. It pro-

C. C. McCHORD HONORED.

He Becomes President of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners.

Washington, May, 8.—C. C. McChord, Chairman of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, tonight became president of the National Association of State Railroad Commissioners and Interstate Commerce Commissioners. W. C. McMillan, who was elected at the last meeting of the association, has resigned the position, and Mr. McChord succeeded him by virtue of holding the first vice presidency. The executive committee of the association held a meeting here tonight, at which Mr. McChord's succession was formally ratified. It is understood that McMillan has also resigned his position as State Commissioner, owing to a proposed legislative investigation of his official conduct. At the meeting here last January McMillan was elected by one majority over McChord. The National Commission is composed of the Commissioners of thirty-four States and the members of the International Commerce Commission. Owing to the prominence which has been attached to railroad legislation within the past few years, the body is now one of the most important in the country, and the selection of Mr. McChord as its president is a high and deserving honor for the Kentucky. The association will hold its annual convention in this city October 8, and its proceedings at this particular period will be watched with great interest, going to their effect upon the congressional legislation programme.

My Best Friend.

Alexander Benton, who lives on Rural Route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incipient consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equalled it. Fully guaranteed by Haydon & Robertson Druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A Narrow Escape.

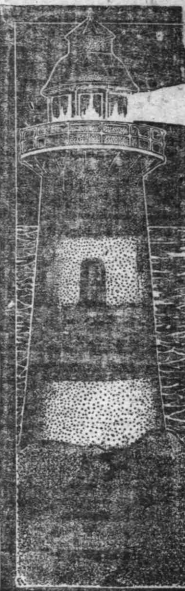

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant of Plunk, Mo. had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at Haydon & Robertson's Druggists.

For Barrel of Beer.

A test suit was filed in the Marion Quarterly court several days ago by Mr. C. E. Johnson against the Louisville & Nashville & Nashville railroad. A barrel containing bottles of beer was shipped Mr. Johnson from Vincennes, Ind. shortly after the local option law became effective in this city. Soon after it arrived Mr. Johnson went to the depot for it, but the agent refused to turn it over to him until he had been advised about the matter. Mr. Johnson sued out a writ of delivery in the Quarterly court and when served by Sheriff Gartin the barrel was delivered. In order to test the law on the question Mr. Johnson filed a small suit for damages against the company for refusing to deliver the beer when it was first demanded by him. It is believed that inasmuch as the shipment was made from another state it was not illegal.—Enterprise.

High Price of Irish Potatoes.

Irish potatoes are soaring in price and unless they stop raising this ordinary staple will be one luxury. Within the past several weeks the wholesale price has leaped from 50 cents to 75 cents and the prospects are that the price will not stop soaring until 90 cents or $1.25 is reached. The cause of the potato situation is because of the scarcity of the article where it had been thought that the storage crop was sufficient to last out the season. California and the Pacific country generally have drawn on the Wisconsin potato market which is without precedent. Another reason of the steadily rising prices of the succulent tuber is because of the small crop of new Southern potatoes. Not even a half crop compared to former years, is being furnished from that section and those that are available are selling at 75 cents a peck wholesale price.—Ex.

Was Waiting AWAY

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and grew thin and was doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overworked. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Another Test

Russellville, Ky.—Suit was filed yesterday in the Logan Circuit Court by local liquor dealers in order to finally test the local option law as to Russellville. Russellville is a city of the fourth class, and the plaintiffs contend that the recent decisions of the Court of Appeals do not affect the status of this city, which is now and has been for quite a number of years a "wet" town. The prohibitionists contend that the opinion of the Court of Appeals in the recent cases from Henry, Lincoln and Woodford counties settles the matter and that this city is now a dry town. The city voted on this question at the instance of the local optionists, in August 1906. The town voted wet. Thereafter and in December following, the county held a vote, at the instance and on the petition of the local optionists, the county going dry. The plaintiffs claim that as the city voted in August, it could not vote again within three years. Several unique questions are presented in the petition. The case is attracting wide attention locally and will attract as Bowling Green, Lawrencetown, Mayville and many other fourth class cities and third class cities are in the same attitude as Russellville. The suit is in the nature of an application for a writ of mandamus against the City Council to grant a license to J. G. Dickey, Jr., who operates a saloon here and whose license expired in April last, the Council declining to renew it. Browder & Browder brought the suit for the plaintiffs, while City Attorney Felts, and possibly other counsel, will represent the defendants. Whether there is now any question as to the status of Russellville, this suit will finally determine. It has been agreed here by counsel to have the Circuit Court pass on the question and then take the case at once to the Court of Appeals.

Wide Attention throughout the State.

Mr. W. B. Spears has in his possession two specimens of old money that are curiosities. The bills are what is known as Continental money and were authorized by our Continental Congress before forming the constitution of the United States. One of the bills is for $50 and the other is for $100 and the other is were issued in 1775 and 1779.
On one side is a cut of tobacco leaves while on the reverse is the following: "The bearer is entitled to receive thirty five Spanish milled dollars or an equal sum of gold or silver according to a resolution of Congress." One of the bills bears the signature of J. C. Mason and John Greiff. Mr. Spears says that the bills have been in his family for more than a hundred and twenty years having been the property of his grand father, Arthur E.
Gribben who was a soldier in the American Revolution.

Mr. Hirschel Smith who married Miss Ruby S. Lampton, tumor on the brain. In October 1905 Mr. Smith and Miss Lampton were married and made their home in Louisville where Mr.

Smith was employed by the street railway company. He was a young man of fine character and was born and reared in Warren county, his father being a substantial farmer and an elder in the Presbyterian church. The remains were taken to the little town of Woodburn near the place of his birth for burial.

Declared Insane.
Sam P. Baker the young man who was arrested here about three weeks ago for working a smooth swindle on several old negroes of the county and who lay in jail here until last week, has turned up again. A dispatch from Lexington says:
"Sam P. Baker, aged thirty years, formerly of Lancaster, Ky., was adjudged of unsound mind here this morning and ordered to the asylum. Baker was a member of a prominent family and it was shown at the lunacy investigation that cigarettes and whiskey destroyed his reason." Baker was released on a bond of $250 furnished by J. A. Edge, an attorney from Lexington, to answer any indictment which might be found against him by the grand jury. Baker while in custody here did not show any signs of lunacy. He was a cigarette fiend and a whiskey drinker but showed considerable shrewdness in separating a number of old negroes from various sums of money. His incarceration in an asylum will probably have the effect of putting an end to the criminal prosecutions against him here.

Pleasant Occasion.
Rev and Mrs. R. E. C. Law-a most delightful manner at the large number of friends called to congratulate the pastor and his good wife and wish them many more years of life together. The rooms were tastefully decorated with potted plants, and vases of white carnations on mantels and tables.

Numerous handsome presents in cut-glass, china and silver were received as tokens of the love of their friends both in and out of the church. A number of the young ladies of the congregation assisted in serving the refreshments and in entertaining.

Repairing Glasses Maybe you have a pair of glasses that need repairing.
Possibly a lens lost out or a temple broken. Perhaps baby pulls them off your face or you dropped them on the floor and they were stepped on. No matter how badly demolished they are I will make them up again. I guarantee that they cannot be repaired I will replace. I believe that with the material I have in stock I can duplicate almost any lost or broken piece in any make of spectacle. If you have a good frame without lenses or good lenses without a frame I will supply the needed part at a reasonable price. I do every kind of work connected with the spectacle business.

kidneys. The deceased had been in failing health for more than a year and several months ago was forced on account of ill health to dispose of his farming interests and since that time has been boarding in Springfield and has been a confined invalid.
Thomas D. Clarkson was born at the old Clarkson homestead in this county on the Springfield and Lebanon turnpike October 5, 1845. He was the eldest child of Lloyd and Elizabeth Clarkson and had spent his entire life in Washington county where he had been a successful farmer.
For about twenty five years he was manager of the fine farm of Mrs. Nanette Sharp in the Valley Hill neighborhood and after the death of Mrs. Sharp about five years ago, he together with Mr.
G. L. Haydon purchased a part of the farm which he continued to operate until about a year ago when he was compelled to retire from active business. Mr. Clarkson lived and died a bachelor.
He possessed a big generous nature and was ever doing kind deeds for others. His was a blunt, honest character whose sterling worth was known and appreciated by all with whom he was thrown in contact. His nearest remaining relatives are a brother, Mr. R. C. Clarkson, of Lebanon, and Mrs. Ben Haydon of this place, who is a half sister. Two brothers, Messrs.
William and Lloyd Clarkson have preceded him to the grave within the past two years.

The funeral will take place from St. Dominic church this morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Polin Edelen the well-flock.
